Who We Are

About Us:

As a charitable, volunteer-driven, community-based organization, the Danville Family YMCA derives its strength from its community roots and strong volunteers. Through collaborations with schools, hospitals, and other non-profit organizations, we are able to further enhance and expand the programs and services we offer.

The YMCA offers innovative ways to get more involved with the world around you. Along with a range of exciting activities designed to bring families together, the Y also gives you the opportunity to give back to your community through coaching, mentoring, or any number of volunteer options.
